6. Description of activity (incl. objectives, results, conclusions)	This network is continuously growing, and in 2011, we included several of our north European new members. We have successfully arranged a conference in Oslo with contributions from several countries. Our Keynote speakers were Callum Hill and Holger Miltz. We have tied the network community better together, got new research colleagues, and exchanged master students. We have prepared a databank for the equipment infrastructure and research topics for the network More information about the conference here: (in Norwegian) http://www.skogoglandskap.no/nyheter/2011/bruk_og_beskyttelse_av_trevirke

8. Activity summary (about 1/3 page) for possible use in the News & Views section of Scandinavian Journal of Forest Research	Wood is an environmental-friendly, durable and adaptable material for house building and many other purposes. Wood constructions have a long history in northern Europe, although, recently, timber has had to compete with steel and concrete. However, it is still a viable alternative, and new inventions have increased the potential uses of wood in construction. More is already published in N&W: http://www.nordicforestresearch.org/wp-content/uploads/2011/02/NV_2012_2.pdf
