SNS new networks cooperate for Nordic forests and sustainability

Our annual networks in 2020 will work with saving the ash, sustainable forest management, life cycle assessment, forest economics and much more. We welcome our new networks to our family and hope we will hear a lot from you about your activities and progress!

SNS board is getting younger

Everything is set for our new member of the board, the youth member. We hope our decisions to be even more modern and our perspective to be fresh. Mikal Råheim is our first youth member - welcome! We are looking forward to working with you!

Still some time to apply for our scholarship

Do you have a good idea related to forest genetic resources, supply of seeds, plants and regeneration methods? Apply for the SNS & NordGen Forest scholarship before February 15th, and we might finance your dream! You can apply for up to 20 000 NOK for travel costs, running expenses, participation in a conference or something else – visit our website for more information.
