New film: Reindeer herding and forestry can coexist

Reindeer husbandry is under pressure. The film "Reindeer and forestry in the Nordic countries" focuses on the options to solve potential conflicts between reindeer herding and forestry with dialogue and concern.

The film is made by Heurgren Film and Mats Hannerz with support from SNS and our sister organisation NKJ.

Gender equality: how can universities incorporate gender issues?

Do you think gender balance in the more and more digitalised bioeconomy is a good thing? Welcome to take part in the discussion forum arranged by BioEquality network. "Tools for gender balance in the digital bioeconomy" is the title of the day. The participants will have inspirational talks and explore how gender perspectives can be incorporated at universities. By participating, you contribute to guidelines for gender balance in the bioeconomy sector!
