NKJ at the Nordic minister meeting in Tromsø

At their meeting in Tromsø, Norway, the Nordic ministers for fisheries, aquaculture, agriculture, food and forestry got the NKJ report on wild boar in the Nordic countries, a reviewed edition. The different countries manage the wild boar population in totally different ways and there is a need for cooperation.

NKJ took part in a side event at the minister meeting. The NKJ secretary general Per Hansson talked about proteins, resilience and sustainability.

Food for elderly arises vivid debate

The NKJ funded network Bridge Builders presented their activities at the 12th International Conference on Culinary Arts and Sciences (ICCAS 2022) in Lyon, France, in order to discuss how a multidisciplinary approach can contribute with new knowledge to promote sustainable healthy aging in relation to food, nutrition, health and well-being services.

The network also arranged an open webinar.
